

P4-05

Vulnerable Road Users (VRU)

Pillar 4	Safer road users
Description – Topics and indicative content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Types of vulnerable road users <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Pedestrians – Cyclists – Motorcyclists – Non motorised vehicle occupants – People with physical disabilities ◆ Typical road crashes with vulnerable road users ◆ Road safety education and training vulnerable road users ◆ Improving road infrastructure for vulnerable road users
Duration	5 days
Participants	University staff (, professors and assistants), Road safety commission / council (NRSC) members and NRSC secretariats, road designers, Policy makers, National and local government officials responsible for road safety
Group	Minimum 15 Participants, Maximum 30 Participants
Pool of potential international lecturers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Alan Ross, PhD ● Prof. Krsto Lipovac, PhD ● Hans Joachim Vollpracht 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Asst. prof. Boris Antic, PhD, ● Asst. prof. Dalibor Pesic, PhD ● Dejan Jovanov, PhD
Focus and content of course	Apart from the training and lectures on the above topics, this course will include a lot of discussion about how to assess infrastructure needs and how to provide adequate facilities for safe use of roads by these road user groups. Participants will be able to understand concepts of improving and adapting systems to meet the needs of vulnerable road user (VRU) groups and the education, training of vulnerable road users to use roads more safely. Participants will learn the best methods of training for VRU groups, how to measure knowledge and attitude improvement and how to evaluate such programs etc. They also learn about risk assessment of VRUs and the infrastructure facilities that can be implemented to reduce such risks
Price (per participant) This assumes course is in English but with instantaneous translation available into one other language (e.g. Russian, Serbian, or other) if at least 15 participants agree the other language	Price to be agreed (5 days course). Course participants have to organize their own flights to / from Belgrade but hotel bed and breakfast accommodation (single room) at the conference hotel in Belgrade city center, , lunches/coffees/dinner during each day of the course, evening social/networking activities in Belgrade (including a river cruise and conference dinner) will all be included within the cost of the course. Participants will be eligible to access the Alumni part of the website where additional materials, mentoring, webinars and other support services will be made available	