

P5-01

Road Traffic Injury Prevention - WHO

Pillar 5	Post Crash Activities
Description - Topics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◆ Magnitude and impact of road traffic injuries</li> <li>◆ Risk factors for road traffic injuries</li> <li>◆ Importance of evidence as a foundation for prevention</li> <li>◆ Implementing specific interventions to prevent road traffic injuries</li> <li>◆ Delivering post-crash care</li> <li>◆ Multisectoral collaboration</li> <li>◆ Formulating and implementing road safety policy</li> </ul>
Duration	3/5/10 days
Participants	Decision makers/Road Safety Specialists/
Group	10-15 Participants
Lecturers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Alan Ross, PhD</li> <li>● Rune Elvik, PhD</li> <li>● Fred Wegman, PhD</li> <li>● prof. Milan Vujanic, PhD</li> <li>● prof. Krsto Lipovac, PhD</li> <li>● prof. Dragan Jovanovic, PhD</li> <li>● asst. prof. Boris Antic, PhD,</li> <li>● asst. prof. Dalibor Pesic, PhD</li> <li>● Stein Lundebye</li> <li>● Robert Klein</li> <li>● Charles Melhuish</li> <li>● asst. prof. Dušan Mladenović, PhD</li> <li>● Dejan Jovanov, PhD</li> </ul>
Notice	According to multisectoral Impact on Road Safety Management, during this course are arranged several visits to the most important subjects/ institutions, such as: Ministry of Transport, Ministry of Health, Ministry of Interior, Traffic Police Administration, Red Cross of Serbia, Road Traffic Safety Agency, Public Enterprise Roads of Serbia, Faculty of Transport and Traffic Engineering). Sightseeing of Belgrade and visit to the „Skadarlija“ Bohemian quarter are also included.
Price (per participant)	This assumes course is in English but with instantaneous translation available into one other language (e.g. Russian, Serbian, or other) if at least 15 participants agree the other language